April 2013

Next Meeting: Carol Steinberg, Oil Painter

Carol Steinberg

She has taught drawing, design, and painting at Los Angeles City College, Cal State University at Northridge, and Otis Evening College.

She earned her MFA at CalArts and her BFA and BA from Cornell University and has received scholarships from art programs around the country.

Her work has been published, won prizes, been listed as an LA Times "Best Bet" and chosen for Eddie Murphy's film Daddy Day Care, as well as other film and TV projects.

In the fall of 2008, a dozen of her paintings appeared on the award winning TV show House in an episode about a painter with a disturbing vision problem.

Please join us at our next meeting where Carol will demonstrate her technique for "Fast and Loose Still Life Painting in Oil."

At our next meeting, we will also hand out prize ribbons and cash awards for our winning member artists from the 2013 La Canada Library show. We encourage everyone to come and show support for fellow participating artists. As always, non-members are welcome.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

David Swenson, from the Museum of Neon Art at the March meeting

Dear Artists,

What a great presentation by David Swenson and Kim Koga of the Museum of Neon Art team at our March 14th meeting! Fascinating and inspiring. We are looking forward to collaborating with MONA again in the future.

You have probably heard by now that we are having two small shows this Spring instead of a giant Spring Salon show like we had last year in Silverlake. “Let Your Imagination Fly” at the La Canada library, April 2nd - 20th and “Glendale Real And Imagined” at Anzoh Gallery, June 7th - June 20th.

We are looking forward to a good turnout at these members only shows to support our goal of five scholarships to be awarded to senior art students in two Glendale High Schools in June.

By the time this newsletter hits the streets, the La Canada library show will be underway. So now is the time to turn your attention to creating Glendale images either REAL (representational images of Glendale places, people or things) or IMAGINED (abstract or fantasy images somehow related to our fair city) — and take a shot at some juicy cash prizes.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Glendale Art Association is currently seeking volunteers to assist with Publicity and Sponsorships. If interested or for more information, please contact Dick Heimbold by calling 818.241.2069 or email him at: dheimbold@aol.com

Brace yourselves for the next blast of good news:

The Glendale Art Association has been selected to receive Glendale's DIAMOND AWARD for best art organization in 2012!!

Teammates, you made it happen — see you at the award ceremony at the on Monday April 29 at 6pm in the Main Library auditorium. Let me know if you plan to attend so I can RSVP for us as a group.

Don't miss our next meeting on April 11th, featuring Carol Steinberg, oil painter.

– Dick Heimbold

New member artist Lilia Geoktchakian stopped by the La Canada Library this week to check out the “Let Your Imagination Fly” show.

THE GLENDALE ART SCENE

By Dick Heimbold

On March 18th Shree Hingnikar and I met with City Council Member Laura Friedman and City Manager Scott Ochoa to discuss using the Civic Auditorium for our large art shows. They both were very positive about this idea. The auditorium's lower level has plenty of room for a large art show and there is convenient parking. It and can be equipped with movable hanging partitions and lighting for a first class art event.

Next stop (for Shree, Araks and I) was the Arts and Culture Commission meeting on March in 21. Great News! The Work Plan for 2013-14 was updated to include funds for outfitting the civic auditorium for art shows.

I recommended that the schedule for the auditorium upgrades be accelerated to make possible a GAA event there in November. Also recommended that a Glendale art community advisory group be formed to provide support to the A&CC. I'll keep you posted in the future how these recommendations work out.

After a lively debate and a few changes to the budget the commissioners approved the work plan (available on the city web site). It will now move on for City Council review and approval.

Art community colleagues Joy Feuer (Art From the Ashes); Kim Koga (Museum of Neon Art); and Joan Adan, (Forest Lawn Gallery) were also in attendance. Joy also addressed the Council expressing a desire to submit a proposal to the city for the next round of the GATE project competition. Good to see Joy throwing her hat into the ring on this one — she is a real pro when it comes to art event promotion and production.

We at GAA appreciate the work Arlene Vartanian has put into building the comprehensive work plan in collaboration with Chairman Teri Deaver and the rest of the Arts & Culture Commission team. ■
