Next Meeting Demonstrator: DANIELLE EUBANK

Danielle Eubank is a painter interested in exploring the relationship between abstraction and realism. Her work "rests on the line between abstraction and representation. I consider the forms created by ripples in a pond or the lines of receding waves a foundation for further deconstruction. I am looking for the tipping point between the conceptual and visible."

Danielle is a recipient of the Pollock-Krasner Foundation Grant 2014-15. In 2005, she was an artist-in-residence in Bali for 3 months. Based in Ubud, a centre of traditional arts, she immersed herself in the local culture, seascape and artistic heritage of the island—all of which is celebrated in the work she created there. Ms. Eubank has worked as a commissioned artist, producing portraits for groups such as Standard Chartered Bank and for the Naval and Military Club in London, as well for many private individuals.

She painted the portrait of General Sir Peter de la Billiere that hangs in the foyer of the Naval and Military Club. It was unveiled by His Royal Highness Prince General Khaled bin Sultan bin Abdulaziz of Saudi Arabia in May, 2007.

She has painted the Henley Royal Regattasince 2011. A film documentary about her work premiered at the Newport Beach Film Festival in 2012.

Danielle Eubank currently lives and works in Los Angeles, and maintains a studio in London

President's Message

The October meeting was very convivial, as usual. Our demonstrator was Srboohie Abadjian a gifted artist from La Crescenta. Srboohie discussed the philosophical underpinnings of her work and she discussed how she developed a unique style of painting in which her line work predominates. She does series of works in which very basic human qualities, such as motherhood or societal issues such as the impact of cars, are themes. Her demonstration of the monotype technique was most informative, particularly as she discussed how she produced unique line drawings that she applied as collage constructions on larger canvases. Altogether a fascinating demonstration. Thanks, Srboohie!

GAA Artists have over thirty works on display at Far Niente restaurant on Brand Blvd, right in the middle of Glendale. Drop in for lunch or dinner and enjoy some excellent Italian cooking. You'll be proud of the impressive art work of our teammates hanging there. Our Thanks to Kevin Berresford, owner of Far Niente, for hosting GAA. We will continue to evaluate works for the restaurant in December. By prior arrangement the San Fernando Valley Art Club will be there in November and will alternate months with GAA thereafter.

Just saw a flyer for the LA Art Show in January. GAA member have put together groups for the last two years to see this event. And it has been most enjoyable with members enjoying the works in twos and threes and then coming together for lunch and afternoon coffee to share our experiences with each other.

Araks Johannes and I had a most productive meeting with John David O'Brien at Whites the day after our Fall Salon opening on Oct 5th. John heads up the GALA program for the City of Glendale. This program makes use of empty store fronts to display artwork. He likes the work our organization produces and is enthused about GAA hanging work in downtown storefronts next year.

Danielle Eubank will be demonstrating at our next meeting on November 13th and you will enjoy this unique artist, See you at the meeting,

- Dick Heimbold
