

Glendale Art Association

A Nonprofit Organization

Founded in 1922, the non-profit GAA is one of the oldest art organizations in California. Our purpose is to promote interest in Art in its forms and applications, to provide opportunities for fellowship among those who are creators and appreciators of art and to encourage and advance self-expression through visual art for the benefit of the members and of the community.

EXHIBITIONS

The Glendale Art Association sponsors a minimum of two annual exhibitions of art work by it's members in Glendale and various surrounding area venues.

MONTHLY MEETINGS

Association meetings are held at 7pm on the 2nd Thursday of each month (except July and August).

A demonstration by a professional artist is presented and members bring current works for the Mini Show ($3 per painting entry fee).

Members: $5 Guests: $5*

Citibank Building (basement meeting room)

Why Become A GAA Member?

- We offer a healthy place to create, learn, grow and be a part of our thriving art community.
- We offer multiple yearly opportunities for exhibiting your work, including one members only show and one open show.
- We help in the community by providing scholarships to area high school students who are planning to pursue art in continuing education institutions.
