Next Meeting Demonstrator: YOU!

The demonstration during this month's meeting will consist of members' participation and collaboration on a group painting. Dulcie Adams will bring a canvas and paints and will kick things off. If you would like to bring a started painting, please contact Dulcie at (323) 661-8338.

Everyone is encouraged to participate and put their own style on the painting for about 10 minutes a piece (more or less, depending on how many folks decide to join in).

The finished piece will be raffled off. See you all on the 12th!

Presidents Message

Dear Members,

The Spring Salon 2014 was a beautiful exhibition. This was our first show in the Glendale Central Library and it exceeded expectations. The large space lent itself to a comfortable flow of guests viewing the works, listening to the wonderful Verdugo String Quartet, socializing among friends and enjoying food, wine and non-alcoholic beverages. The library gets about 1500 visitors a day and consequently there were many people enjoying the works every day. We got a number of inquiries about membership and our organization in general.

Our thanks go out to Cindy Cleary who heads the Library, Arts & Culture Department; Chuck Wike, Library Supervisor; and the rest of the Library staff who were so helpful. Our thanks to members who pitched in a lot of time to stage the show; all our sponsors who support us and our scholarship program; Verdugo String Quartet; and judge Phung Huynh. Also thanks to Rosemary Dominguez and Vince Ginsberg for donating their time as bartenders.

We were able to give scholarships this graduating season to: Christian A. Nevarez of the Daily Continuation High School, and Jane J. Kim and Nonoor Petrosyan of Hoover High School. Our best wishes to these ambitious young students of the arts. Thanks to Diane Carter, GAA Secretary, who handles the arrangements for the Scholarship program. Diane also kicked off art category for Eco and Found Art in the Spring Salon by donating the $100 First Prize.

We are talking with the Library about having the Fall Salon 2014 there in October—just before the library closes down for eighteen months for renovation.

Our demonstration this month will be a member participation event. Always good for a few big laughs. Works produced will be raffled off.

This will be our last newsletter until September. Have a great summer!

See you at the Thursday June 12 meeting.

UPDATES

Patty O'Hearn, Hector Fernandez and other members will have work exhibited in Galeria Gitana's "Splendors from the Garden" show from April 26-June 21.

Vicky Rees is now offering private and group arts enrichment for school age children in her studio or off-site. For more information, email: vrees@studiomelange.net

Araks Johannes has her Charcoal Pencil art work "Balance", at Brand Library, "Brand 42 Work on Paper" Exhibition, May 17 - June 20.

Scholarships Awarded

Diane Carter & Steve Mills attended the Herbert High School Senior Awards Night on Monday, May 19th to present GAA scholarships for $500 each to two outstanding students in the arts. Pictured receiving her scholarship is Nanoor Petrousyian. After graduation she will be continuing her art studies at Glendale Community College. She specializes in ceramics, but is also a painter and a dancer. She was also named "Outstanding Artist" by the Hoover High Art Department in the area of ceramics, and also was presented with the Gladys Merrick Fleming Art Award for an outstanding art student.

Jane J. Kim received the other GAA Scholarship, but could not attend the ceremony because of work commitments. Both students take part in the Hoover High School Fine Arts Academy, a three year program at the school for students taking advanced art classes.

The third scholarship was delivered to Daily High School for Christian A. Nevarez (left) to study Art and Psychology.
